The People's Millions

Every year the Big Lottery gives grants to community organisations by asking the public to vote by phone for their top choices. Six projects are shortlisted in each ITV News region.

The Friends of the Potteries Museums & Art Gallery's project Infusion has been shortlisted in the ITV Central West area and could win £30,000.

What is Infusion?

Infusion is an ambitious community arts programme that will bring together people from different backgrounds, particularly children and young people, to enjoy the arts and be inspired through creativity

What do we want The People's Millions money for?

- To engage professional artists to work with children and young people to create artworks inspired by The Potteries Museum & Art Gallery's superb collections
- To run a series of themed events highlighting different styles of arts, crafts, music, dance and storytelling
- To organise visits to other inspirational sites
- To put on an exhibition and major event that brings the community together

How you can help

- Tell your family and friends about Infusion
- 'Like' our facebook page
- Look out for the special phone number that will be published on the morning of 24th November for the public to vote

Vote, vote and vote again!
